Event Type

20. A Developmental Event:

The focus of this event is to provide a fun experience that appropriately challenges the young judoka. The aim is to maximise the time on the mat whilst introducing the competitive elements of judo e.g., the 'consequence' of being thrown for Ippon. To this end it is important that participants are of the appropriate 'level' in terms of their development and experience.

Competition Start

21. Competitors must arrive at their designated weigh-in times
22. Competition will commence at 10.00am

Rules & Method

23. BJA Technical Restrictions will apply along with modified JudoScotland rules.
24. AA band contest time 2 minutes, no Golden Score.
25. A band contest time 3 minutes, no Golden Score.
26. No competitor will fight the same opponent more than once, Therefore, where they appear matched again in subsequent round 2, the initial results will be carried forward, this does not apply to the knockout round.

Eligibility

27. All competitors must hold and produce proof of current membership to BJA, NIJF, WJA or JudoScotland.

Possible Event Format Example:

70. No competitor will fight the same opponent more than once, therefore, where they appear matched again in subsequent round 2, the initial results will be carried forward.
71. In the first round, competitors are allocated to pools of 4 within their age band (AA or A), grade, and weight (where possible)
72. The 1st & 2nd placed competitors in each pool progress to the subsequent round to form a new pool(s) this pool will give the final placing within this pool
 - o e.g.: Gold, Silver & 2 Bronze medallists and the title of The Scottish All Stars Age and Grade Champion.

Please note In Round 2 there could be more than one Gold, Silver & Bronze medallist in a specific age, grade, and weight category.

73. 3rd & 4th placed players will be entered into an additional pool of 4 (the playoffs), this will give the judoka more time on the mat

Non-Placing medals & certificates will be awarded in the playoff pools only.

74. Gold and Silver medallist from round 2 will be entered into a straight knockout.
 - o No previous results will be carried forward to this stage.
 - o This format will be age band and weight only (where possible)
 - o Only the winner of the knockout stage will receive a winner's trophy
