Background, Qualifications and Experiences (Relevant to the position of Non-Executive Director)

I started my journey as a Judo coach thirty years ago. During my time within the sport, I have had three positive role models that significantly influence me during my Judo career. They showed me how to be optimistic, determined, compassionate and have integrity all traits I value to this day and essential in the role of a Judo coach.

To achieve my coaching aspirations and to develop personally I returned to university where over a number of years I achieved a range of academic qualifications revolving around sport, Including:

- Sport Development
- Sports Science
- Sports Performance

These qualifications have given me the opportunities to experience varied roles within our sport including:

- Development Officer, JudoScotland
- Senior Examiner
- Talent Development Support Coach, JudoScotland
- GB Special Olympic Coach, JudoScotland
- Tutor and Assessor JudoScotland
- Coach Developer and Assessor coach, Irish Judo Association
- Curriculum Writer (Coaching Awards Level 1 and 2) Irish Judo Association
- Non- Executive Board Member, JudoScotland

Knowledge, Skills and Abilities (Relevant to the position of Non-Executive Director)

I have over thirty years of experience and knowledge within the sport. As a former non-executive board member and employee of JudoScotland, plus lead coach of Jidel Judo 93 this has allowed me to use my skills to create links and relationships with stakeholders and partnership groups vital to the growth and sustainability of our organisation.

The skills that I have gained during this time which are pertinent to the position are team working, leadership, planning and strategizing. I constantly working to budgets and have a wealth of knowledge on initiatives that have had a positive impact on marginalised groups

Disposition and Personal Qualities

I am a strong leader who is enthusiastic, conscientious, motivated, flexible, honest, who understands the value of collective responsibility. I am an excellent communicator and enjoy being part of a group dynamic, building relationships and having day-to-day interaction. I am an excellent candidate for the position, having over thirty years of experience to draw upon. I have a comprehensive knowledge of JS and understand its challenges as it moves into 2023 and beyond. With the wealth of skills, knowledge, and experience that I have gained I feel that I would excel as chairperson for JS.

I am humbled to be nominated for the position of chairperson by:
Dr George Kerr 10th Dan (CBE) Judo Academy & Edinburgh Judo
