

JudoScotland

Judo For All

Annual Report 2023

2023 At A Glance

2023 marked another busy year for JudoScotland, filled with incredible achievements and growth! Scan the QR code or click the video below to watch the highlights and exciting moments that defined Scottish judo in 2023!

Supported a successful domestic events programme tailored to our members' developmental, social, and competitive needs, including:

- 4 Grand Prix Events
- 3 National Gradings
- 2 Keizoku Events
- 1 Scottish All Stars Championship

550 competitors from 15 nations competed at The 2023 Scottish Open

Sean Allan won gold at the Special Olympics

With record nominations, 8 coaches, officials, and volunteers were honoured with a JudoScotland COV Award.

Chris Murphy won gold at the Virtus Global Games

Total Membership
8489
New Members
3346

Female 29.12%
Male 70.76%
Other 0.1%

11,637
Gradings Processed

Developing the coaching workforce of the future with 41 newly qualified Level 1 coaches and 12 advancing to Level 2.

Strengthened partnership with Scottish Veterans' Judo to support monthly sessions

JudoScotland Balance Sheet As at 31 December 2023

	2023	2022
Fixed Assets	£	£
Fixed Assets	7,335	7,335
Current Assets
Cash at bank and in hand	592,831	461,106
Current Assets	51,736	29,342
Capital, Reserves and Liabilities
Current Creditors	325,705	237,717
Capital and Reserves	326,196	260,066

